NOTICE OF PRIVACY RIGHTS AND PRACTICES

COZAD COMMUNITY HEALTH SYSTEMS
COZAD COMMUNITY HOSPITAL
COZAD COMMUNITY MEDICAL CLINIC
PHYSICAL THERAPY AND REHABILITATION
CENTRAL PLAINS HOME HEALTH AND HOSPICE/CAREMATES

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN OBTAIN ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION.

PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY

WHO WILL FOLLOW THIS NOTICE:

- Any healthcare professional authorized to enter information into your medical chart.
- All Departments and units of the Cozad Community Health Systems
- Any member of a volunteer group we allow to help you while you are in the Cozad Community Health Systems.
- All employees, staff, and other hospital personnel.
- Staff at all other subsidiaries such as Cozad Community Medical Clinic, Central Plains Home Health and Hospice, CareMates, Cozad Community Physical Therapy Dept.

All these entities, sites and locations follow the terms of this notice. In addition, these entities, sites and locations may share medical information with each other for the treatment, payment and hospital operations described in the Notice.

Each time you receive care at Cozad Community Health Systems; a record is made of your visit. Your medical record may include your symptoms, what was found during the exam, test results, diagnoses, treatment given and a plan for the future care of treatment. Your financial record may include facts about your bill and insurance. Together this is called your Protected Health Information.

Your Protected Health Information serves as a:

- Basis for planning your care and treatment.
- Means of communication among many health professional who have a role in your care.
- Legal document describing the care you received.
- Record by which you or your insurance company can check that services billed were provided.
- Source of information to:

Educate health professionals

Provide data for medical research

Improve public health

Plan and market the hospital

Improve the care we give

Understanding how your Protected Health Information is used helps you to

- Ensure accuracy.
- Follow the agreed-upon treatment plan.
- Know who, what, when, where, and why others may use all or part of your protected health information.
- Make a more informed decision when giving permission to share information with appropriate companies, agencies and healthcare workers.

Your Protected Health Information Rights

Although your medical records and financial records are property of Cozad Community Health Systems, the information belongs to you. Cozad Community Health Systems complies with all federal and state laws and regulations that apply to this topic. We have policies that give you the right to request in writing your desire to:

- Restrict with whom we may share your protected health information.
- Look at and get all or part of your protected health information.
- Obtain an accounting of disclosures of your protected health information.
- Request to amend your protected health information.
- Have us communicate with you in a certain way and/or at a certain location.
- Change your mind about sharing your protected health information except for what has already been shared.

Our Responsibilities

Cozad Community Health Systems is required to:

- Protect the privacy of your protected health information.
- Provide you with a current copy of the Notice of Privacy Rights and Practices.
- Do what we say we'll do in this notice.
- Display the most current copy of this Notice on the website www.cozadhealthcare.com
- Notify you if we are unable to agree to your written request, Cozad Community Health Systems will honor your requests whenever possible.

We will use and share your protected health information only with your permission, except as described in this notice or as required by state or federal regulations.

We have the right to change this Notice and apply it to the protected health information we already have about you and we receive in the future.

Examples of sharing information for Treatment, Payment and the Operation of Cozad Community Health Systems.

- 1. We will use your protected health information for Treatment For example:
 - Information obtained by a nurse, doctor or other member of your healthcare team will be written in your medical record and used to determine the treatment that should work best for you.
 Members of your healthcare team will document their actions, your progress and response to treatment.
 - We will provide any facility or provider involved in your care with information that may assist in your treatment.
 - When you are no longer receiving care at Cozad Community Health Systems, we will provide information to any health care provider that cares for you. These copies of your medical record help them continue your plan of care after discharge.
- 2. We will use your protected health information for Payment.

For example:

- We will send a bill to you and/or your insurance company. The information may include your name, diagnosis, procedures, and supplies used.
- We will provide needed information to other healthcare providers for their billing purposes. For example, if you are brought in by ambulance, the information collected will be given to the ambulance provider for their billing purposes.
- 3. We will use your protected health information for the Operations of Cozad Community Health Systems.

For example:

- Cozad Community Health Systems staff members may use information in your medical record to assess the results of your care. This information is used to improve the services we provide.
- Cozad Community Health Systems may share your protected health information with other healthcare providers for their operations if they have or will have a relationship with you.

- 4. We will allow our business associates, to use your protected health information if needed. For example:
 - People or companies, known as business associates, who are not employed by us, provide some services.
 - Cozad Community Health Systems requires business associates to protect patient's health Information.
- 5. We may provide information about you in the hospital directory.

For example:

- Unless you tell us not to, we may include certain limited information about you in the hospital directory while you are a patient. This information may include your name, location and general conditions in terms that do not communicate specific medical information about you. The directory may also be released to people who contact the hospital and ask for you by name. This is so your family, friends and the clergy may visit you in the hospital.
- 6. We may give your protected health information to individuals involved in your care or payment for your care.

For Example:

- We may release protected health information about you to a friend, family member or any other person identified by you as being involved in your medical care or who is involved in the payment of your care. We will only release this information if you agree to the disclosure, are given the opportunity to object to such a disclosure and do not, or if in our professional judgment it would be common practice that it is in your best interest to allow a person to act on your behalf.
- 7. We may call you about appointments or treatment.

For example:

- To speed up your registration, we may call ahead for information and/or remind you of appointments.
- Provide treatment alternatives or other health related benefits and services that may be of interest to you.
- 8. We will provide your protected health information to coroners, medical examiners and funeral director.

For example this could be needed to:

- Identify a deceased person.
- Allow funeral directors to carry out their duties.
- 9. We will share your protected health information with organ transplant organizations.

For example:

- Following state law, we will share protected health information with organizations or groups that manage, bank, or transplant organ and tissue donations.
- 10. We will share protected health information about you to assist public health activities or as required by law.

For Example:

- Prevent or control disease, injury, or disability.
- Report births, deaths and child abuse and neglect.
- Report reactions to medications or problems with faulty product.
- Notify a person who may have been exposed to a disease or may be at risk for getting or spreading a disease or condition.
- Notify an appropriate government authority if we believe a patient has been the victim of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence.
- 11. We will use your protected health information for Worker's compensation.

For Example:

- If you are injured on the job, we will share medical information about you for worker's compensation or similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.
- 12. We will share your protected health information with a correctional institution.

For Example:

If you are an innate or in the custody of law enforcement your information will be shared to:

- Provide you with health care.
- Protect your health and safety.
- Protect the health and safety of others.
- Assist in the safety and security of the correctional institution.

13. We will give your protected health information to law enforcement.

For Example, we will share your protected health information as needed:

- In response to a court order, subpoena, warrant, summons, or similar process.
- To identify or locate a suspect, fugitive, material witness, or missing person.
- If we suspect you are a victim of an accident or crime.
- If death occurs, which we believe may be the result of a crime.
- In an emergency to report a crime committed on the premises; the location of the crime or victims; or description or location of the person who committed the crime.

ORGANIED HEALTH CARE ARRANGEMENT

Cozad Community Health Systems hospital staff and independent providers who belong to the Medical Staff must be able to share protected health information freely for treatment, payment, and health care operations. Therefore, each eligible provider on the Hospital's medical staff has entered into an "Organized Health Care Arrangement" or OI#CA. Under OHCA, each provider will:

- Use a joint notice of privacy practices (this Notice) for all inpatient and outpatient visits.
- Obtain a single acknowledgment of receipt.
- Share protected health information from inpatient to outpatient hospital visits with eligible providers so they can help the hospital with its health care operations.
- Follow the privacy and information practices described in the Notice. Each ORCA participant is individually responsible to follow the practices in this Notice.
- An eligible provider consists of a professional with credentials to the medical staff including physicians, pathologists, radiologists, CRNA, APRN, PA.

Complaints or questions about your privacy rights must be made in writing to the Privacy Officer at Cozad Community Health Systems, 300 E 12" St, PO Box 108, Cozad NE 69130. IF you have questions with regard to the contents of this Notice, please call 308-784-2261.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you have the right to file a complaint in writing with the Secretary of Health and Human Services. Nothing will be held against you for filing a complaint.

Reference: Code of Federal Register 1640520/1-23-03 4-13.03/Version 1